The Vote for Chief Justice.

The following are the reported majorities for Chief Justice, in the different counties of the State, as far as heard from. But many of them are conjectured, as the full returns have not yet come to hand:

Counties.	Dixon.	Sloan.
Brown	1,700	——
Columbia	500	——
Dane	2,000	——
Dodge	(reported both ways.)
Clark	——	50
Door	150	——
Fond du Lac	——	600
Green	——	500
Green Lake	——	900
Iowa	——	300
Jefferson	650	——
Juneau	400	——
Jackson	——	200
Kenosha	——	650
Kewaunee	500	——
Milwaukee	3,200	——
Manitowoc	1,500	——
Marquette	200	——
Outagamie	400	——
Ozaukee	1,500	——
Oconto	——	40
Racine	——	700
Rock	——	3,200
Sheboygan	150	——
Sauk	——	1,000
Walworth	——	1,900
Washington	2,000	——
Waushara	——	500
Waukesha	——	250
Waupacca	——	750
Winnebago	——	500
	14,850	12,349

DIXON 2,501 ahead. It is difficult to guess whether the counties to hear from will add to, or diminish DIXON's majority; and some of the above returns are not reliable. We still think DIXON is elected by a fair majority, though the vote is closer than was anticipated.

THE JUDICIAL VOTE IN THIS COUNTY.—A correspondent of the Madison Journal very naturally takes the SENTINEL to task, for not having yet furnished the vote of this city and county for Chief Justice. The editor of the Journal appends the following note to the communication:

> "Our friends of the Sentinel will consider themselves 'given up,' according to request of our correspondent, and they are also notified not to come back at us, for not giving the complete returns from the county of Dane.—EDS. JOURNAL."

We "acknowledge the corn," but plead extenuating circumstances. The SENTINEL of Wednesday morning—the day after election—contained the full vote of our city for charter and ward officers, and all of the Judicial vote that we could obtain by sending messengers to every poll till as late as 2 a. m. of Wednesday. But for the fact that the interest in the result of the city election was so great, that, as a general rule, the city and ward tickets were canvassed first, we should have had a complete report of the judicial as well as of the charter vote. As it is, according to the most reliable figures we have been able to get, the majority for Chief Justice DIXON in this county will vary but little from 3,200. The official canvass takes place to-morrow.

SILVER AT BLACK RIVER FALLS.—The Jackson County Banner is satisfied that there are silver mines in its vicinity. Its editor has seen and handled specimens of the precious stuff. It says: The very fact of the existence of such large excavations, which without doubt were done with human hands, is sufficient to satisfy any reasonable man that some valuable return must have been the object of the labor. As yet only silver has been discovered. Possibly and probably other metals exist there. Our diggers have had no facilities to make examinations and experiments to test the comparative richness of the mines—their first object being to be sure that they had got the genuine article. They are in high feather over the prospects, and are bound to dig and delve for more. Success to them.

STRANGE DEATHS.—The Brodhead Reporter says "we are informed, by the physician in attendance, that three young daughters of Mr. MATTOCK, of this town, have died within the past three weeks, leaving three living, but on the bed of sickness, with like symptoms of the others. We are informed that the symptoms indicate cholera, and if the disease was prevalent, would be so pronounced. Other symptoms indicate that they had taken poison into the stomach. There seem to be circumstances which partially evidence to the family that poison may have been taken, either in tea, water or meat.

THE ADMINISTRATION organs seem very much inclined to lay all the blame of their Connecticut defeat upon the shoulders of poor DOUGLAS. The Washington Star, for example, draws this moral on the occasion:

> "This Douglasism, notwithstanding the enormous expenditure of money subscribed in New York on the Democratic side, has insured in Connecticut what it brought about in the last elections in Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan—perhaps the soundest thrashing at the polls that the party ever received in these several States."

"THE JOURNAL" THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CHICAGO.—By the unanimous vote of the Republican members of the Common Council, the Journal was last evening designated as the Official Paper of this city for the ensuing year."—Chicago Daily Journal.

We congratulate our friends of the Journal upon this substantial and well-merited compliment. May they long wear the laurel they have so fairly won.

NEW STEAMBOAT LINE.—The Dubuque Times learns from reliable authority that arrangements have been perfected for the organization of a new and independent daily steamboat line between Dubuque and St. Paul, by the Illinois Central and Galena & Chicago Union Railroad Companies.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.—The financial year of the American Bible Society closed on Saturday last, March 31st. The past year has been one of great prosperity; the total receipts were $435,000, and the number of volumes issued, 752,000.

THE WISCONSIN PINERY has reached the eighth year of its existence, and now bids fair to live on. It is a deserving sheet, and should be heartily sustained by the Stevens Point folks.

KENOSHA COUNTY, all but three towns, SLOAN's maj. 669. The towns to be heard from will not reduce this.

Town of Bristol—SLOAN, 162; DIXON, 47.

Paris—45 majority for DIXON.

THE HOUSE OF MARTIN LAUTER, at Berlin City, was burned down on Friday night last.

Hurrah for Oconto!

Correspondence of the Sentinel

PIONEER OFFICE,
OCONTO, April 5, 1860.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—Returns all in from the county, save one town, and SLOAN has 30 majority. The town yet to hear from will probably give him ten majority—making him just forty ahead in the county. Last Spring Oconto county gave LYNDE ninety-five, and last Fall the Democratic State Ticket had 130 majority. The "Pinery Boys" are at work. Yours in haste,

G. C. G.

Sheboygan County.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SHEBOYGAN, April 5, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—DIXON's majority in this county is between 125 and 150. If it had not been for SLOAN's letter to his brother, SLOAN would have had a majority of about 200.

Next Fall, with SEWARD, FREMONT or CHASE, as our candidate, we will carry this county by 300 to 500 majority.

Respectfully yours, A.

The Great Poisoning Case in the Fourth District—The Dead and the Accused Poisoners Confronted.

Yesterday, the negroes Ann and Harry, mother and son, were taken from the prison to the house of Colonel Lemley, to be examined by that gentleman, who, though convalescent, is unable to leave his room.

In the room lay the corpses of Mrs. Lemley and the little boy, son of Mrs. Young, and nephew of Mrs. Lemley. The prisoners were told to look upon the corpses, which they did, without any signs of conscious guilt, or any expressions of a suspicious character.

"Look there," remarked Colonel Lemley, to the woman; "Ann, this is all your work." The woman replied promptly and firmly that she knew nothing about it, that it was as strange to her as anybody else, and after a pause and looking at the face of her dead mistress, she added:

"You know, master, if I had wanted to do such a thing, I could have done it at any time for years past."

A few questions were then asked by the gentlemen present, but nothing satisfactory was elicited. The woman and son were then examined apart. The boy was asked if he had not been seen stirring up the components of the Charlotte Russe. He replied, "Yes; that Ann told him to stir it while she was engaged about something else." Ann being asked acknowledged that she had told Harry to stir the dish.

No impression was made upon the gentlemen present at this examination confirmatory of the suspicion which has attached to those accused. The affair is still enveloped in profound mystery.

MISS YOUNG DEAD.—Miss Emma Young, the girl who laid so long on the verge of death, then got better and promised to recover, got worse again and died last night.

The bodies of Mrs. Lemley and little Willie Young were yesterday sent up to Jackson, Miss.; now a third body is added to the melancholy list.

The manner in which the victims of this awful poisoning affair change from bad to better and from better to worse, naturally causes a feeling of the most painful suspense in regard to the numerous victims who are still sick.—New Orleans Delta, March 30.

The Interest Law.

Published March 31, 1860.

AN ACT to amend Chapter One Hundred and Sixty (160) of the General Laws of 1859, entitled "An Act to prescribe and limit the rate of Interest."

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of Chapter 160 of the General Laws of 1859, entitled "An Act to prescribe and limit the rate of interest" is hereby amended by striking out the word "twelve" where it occurs in said section, and insert in lieu thereof the the word "ten."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

WM. M. GRISWOLD,
Speaker of the Assembly pro tem
BUTLER G. NOBLE.
Lieut. Gov. and Pres't of the Senate.
Approved March 26, 1860.
ALEX. W. RANDALL.

CALIFORNIA PREFERENCES.—A San Francisco correspondent of the New York Century writes:

"Daniel S. Dickinson is the favorite of a majority of California Democrats as the candidate for the Presidency. They desire a New York man, to get the vote of that State, without which they count on defeat. Besides, they consider it fair to take a candidate whose soul is on one side of the great line, and his body on the other. Your Southern Democrats, who carry soul and body in the same jacket, do not meet the present emergency.

Seward is undoubtedly the choice of the Republicans of the Pacific. In him they have confidence—they know him to be a great man—they are proud of him. He is one of the few public men who will bear to be well known. At this moment there is extensively felt the want of a candidate who shall be able so stand on his own merits, and not one of negative qualities, chosen because he is available.

Douglas was once highly popular with his party in this region, but since his break with Buchanan he has fallen into oblivion. The Republicans never had confidence in him. In fact, he was always thoroughly despised by them as an unprincipled demagogue.—When he fell out with the President on the Kansas question, the Administration Democrats cursed him with a will. His only friends were the Anti Lecompton Democrats, and these were alienated from him by his treachery to Broderick. Perhaps there is not a public man in the Union who is so universally despised by all parties in California. Senator Gwin may be an exception.

THE PEOPLE AND THE POPE.—When Bishop Hughes and other Catholic clergy protested in such vehement terms against the deposition of the Pope from his temporal sovereignty in the Legations, urging that his title to it was more legitimate than that of any other monarch, we replied that the true way way of settling the question was the American way—by appeal to the people. Since then the people under the Pope's government have been asked their opinion on that point, and they have answered with emphasis. Here is the result of the elections of the 11th and 12th of March:

BOLOGNA.
Annexation	76,276
Separate Kingdom	63
Void through informality	101
RAVENNA.
Annexation	38,115
Separate Kingdom	23
Void through informality	73
FORLI.
Annexation	39,200
Separate Kingdom	54
Void through informality	60
FERRARA.
Annexation	45,000
Separate Kingdom	83
Void through informality	135

The total number are as follows:

Annexation	202,550
Separate Kingdom	254
Void through informality	444

Now, these are the very provinces of the Church; they are not only overrun with ecclesiastics, but all their officials are the direct agents of the clerical government at Rome.—Yet the result shows an overwhelming preponderance of sentiment opposed to the secular rule of the Pope. Not even an omnibus load of partisans voted for the Papal supremacy. Indeed, the idea of a return to Rome seems scarcely to have entered into the contest, and those who did not vote for annexation voted for the erection of an independent kingdom.

FIRST BOAT UP THE RIVER.—The Algoma, Capt. Truesdell, arrived at the lower dock last night. She has fifteen tons of merchandize on board for Puckaway, and a barge of lumber in tow for that place and Marquette. This steamer was built at Oshkosh, and it is the design of her enterprising owners, Maj. E. L. Paine & Sons, to run her between that city and Portage the coming season. As the Algoma draws but fifteen inches of water, she will probably be the only boat that can make regular trips above this point during stages of low water.—Berlin Courant.

MICHIGAN ELECTIONS—"AND STILL THEY COME!"—The returns from the town elections in this State continue to indicate the unswerving fidelity of Michigan to freedom and free institutions. It is not extravagant to predict that, with Seward as our standard-bearer, we shall roll up twenty-five thousand majority in November for the Republican ticket.—Detroit Advertiser.

THE CITY.

Report of the Investigating Committee—Joint Convention of Common Council.

A joint convention of both Boards of the Common Council was held on Friday evening, Councilor BOSSBECK in the Chair.

The Committee appointed to examine the return of the Inspectors of Election, reported them all right with the exception of those relating to the Constable in the Third Ward, where a discrepancy existed which they could not reconcile. It appears that on the first count by the Inspectors FAHEY was ahead.—To this Mr. CONNAUGHTY objected and demanded that the votes be canvassed again, which was done, when he came out ahead.—The Inspectors think they were right in their counting both times, and were unable to decide who was elected.

Councilor McCORMICK stated that he had been appealed to by Mr. CONNAUGHTY and had told him he would give him all the satisfaction he wanted, intending (so he stated) to count the ballots privately.

A communication from the City Attorney was read, stating that he thought the action of the Inspectors illegal; their power ceasing after the first count, and referring to Chap. 1, Sec. 49 of Revised Statutes, and concluding that when they had finished counting, their power ceased, and they were dissolved; saying also, that the thing would establish a precedent most pernicious.

Councilor TESCH thought the best way was to hold another election.

Councilor NOYES moved that PATRICK FAHEY be declared elected Constable of the Third Ward. Ayes 13, noes 3.

The Convention here adjourned and the Board of Councilors convened.

In the first order of business the report of the Committee appointed to investigate the books, &c., of the Comptroller's and Clerk's office came up, Mr. LOCKWOOD, the Chairman of that Committee, reading the report. Most of the statements have already been made public at the examination of the arrested officials.

The committee do not think that the corruption stops with the Clerk and Comptroller, but that others are to some extent, if not equally implicated, and said we deem it our duty to state some facts on this head.

We found in a private drawer in the Clerk's safe, the following paper:

Mr. R. B. Lynch, City Clerk:

Please let the Street Commissioners of the Third Ward have half of the amount of any bills which may be allowed to me in future, for work done on the Third Ward, and oblige, PATRICK NOLEN.

The signature to the above paper, in the opinion of your committee, is in the handwriting of Mr. CURNEY, the partner of Mr. NOLEN, and indeed Mr. CURNEY does not deny that it is in his writing. The body of the note appears to your committee to be the handwriting of Councilor McGRATH, but both the Street Commissioners and Mr. NOLAN deny any knowledge of it.

Your committee also find that Councilor JOHNSTON has received from the City Clerk, orders to a large amount due to contractors, and has himself, as your committee believe, endorsed the names of the payers upon the back of them.

The following members of the Harbor Committee received orders from Mr. SIMS:

W. A. NOYES,	$1,000
G. G. DOUSMAN,	400
VICTOR SCHULTE,	250

We have no means of knowing the objects of these loans, but think it exceedingly dangerous to the city to have members of a particular committee accept loans of orders from a heavy contractor with said committee.

Several bills in the name of CARL FREDERICKS were, in fact, the bills of Councilor BUENING. There is one of $30 for repairs to Engine No. 8, and the testimony of two witnesses show that all the work done was putting in one screw, the work being worth about $1,50.

In the Fire Department $1,300 was allowed to the different companies during the past year, $500 paid for refreshments, and repairs to the engines from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum, whereas responsible parties have offered to do all the repairs for the Department for $600 per annum. Work is ordered and done in the shop of the person ordering it, and the bill allowed by himself as a member of the Council, and in some instances the bills not even certified to by the Chief Engineer—the result of members of the Fire Department being also members of the Council, and on the Fire Department Committee.

A vast amount of the bills rendered and paid the last year, are either overcharged or entirely fraudulent, and your committee earnestly urge the appointment of another committee by the new Council, to sift these matters by the bottom.

Two witnesses swear that H. NUNEMACHER delivered six or seven loads of dust per day on a grading contract in the Seventh Ward, and collected for fourteen loads, this being done on each of six teams all the summer, making the overcharge amount to a large sum. One instance of three bills being allowed at different times for the same item of $69 each—once to the party entitled to receive it, and twice to somebody else. Another instance of two payments of $100 each to M. KEOGH, for the same job. On an appropriation of $20,254 09 to HASBROUCK & CONRO, there is an overissue of $500, for whose benefit the committee cannot determine, for the stubs are cut from the books.

Here some additional steals are elicited in regard to the Controller and Clerk, and also the fact that the City Clerk has never given a Bond, and that consequently the city has no remedy against his frauds; and that the Bond of the Controller has no name in the body of it, except himself and G. M. FITZGERALD, though it is signed by others.

In the matter of licenses, the amount received by the Treasurer has fallen from $12,000 in 1857 and '58, to $8,000 in 1859 and '60—the deficit being, not because so much less has been paid, as in its not finding its way into the Treasury.

The committee are of opinion there are some gross frauds in City Bonds, some of those returned for cancellation having been set afloat again. These frauds in bonds reach a very large amount, and as an evidence of the way in which the interests of the city are looked after, a letter is here appended from H. C. GARDINER to I. J. PITMAN, making him a proposition confidentially in regard to $5,000 in bonds he held, to "ring them in" on the city. Here followed a list of amounts allowed Controller and Clerk for services, clerk hire, &c., amounting to about $13,000, which we have previously published.

The committee here explain, and censure the manner in which bills are passed in a heap, and exculpate the Mayor from any collusion.

We find the amounts paid to the City Surveyor during the last year, as follows:

F. SCHUMACHER	$5,336 29
F. S. BLODGETT	2,617 90
	$7,954 19

Responsible parties undertake to do all this for from $2,000 to $2,500.

At the conclusion of the report, it was moved to lay it upon the table.

Councilor JOHNSON opposed the motion, saying that he desired to see it adopted, and some action taken, so that the members charged could have an opportunity of clearing themselves. It was finally laid upon the table.

COUNCILOR RICKERT.—On election morning the Sentinel contained a paragraph, stating that Councilor RICKERT, of the Ninth Ward, had left this city for parts unknown, and for reasons that had not yet transpired. We learned the fact, not, as the News surmises, from political enemies, but from political friends, of the Councillor, who were as much puzzled as we were to account for his absence. It now appears that Councilor RICKERT left here, on a business visit to St. Louis, and returned to his home and official business last week. The News says that "no member of the Common Council is more respected, or held in higher estimation by his constituents, than Councillor RICKERT," and calls upon us to "make the amende honorable." We do so with pleasure, as we know nothing to the disadvantage of Councillor RICKERT.

STEAM-TUG GURDON GRANT.—This smart and tidy steam-tug, which arrived from Green Bay, Friday afternoon, conveyed a party of gentlemen down to the Lake Saturday morning, and improved the opportunity to "show off her points." Captain CONSAUL commanded the Grant, while Commodore, or Colonel CHAS. D. ROBINSON, occupied the quarter deck and entertained his visitors. The Grant ran out into the Lake about a mile, and as there was a good sea rolling in, the landsmen on board had all they could do to stand on their pins. The Grant is a swift and powerful tug, and her shrill whistle can be heard miles away. We commend her and her good Captain to the liberal patronage of our forwarders and vessel owners.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE STILL ON THE WEST SIDE.—The proposition to change the location of the Chamber of Commerce to Michigan st. relicited an animated discussion at the special meeting on Saturday night, but was finally defeated, the Board deciding to remain in the building now occupied by the emphatic vote of 54 to 32.

This we think a sensible conclusion, for although the location on the East side of the river might be more convenient, none of the rooms that have been mentioned are as well adapted to the uses of the Board, as the one they now occupy.

MIL. & MISS. R. R. CHANGE OF TIME.—On and after Sunday, the 8th inst., trains will leave and arrive as follows:

LEAVE.—Mail and day Express, 10 A. M.; Whitewater Accommodation, 5:50 P. M.; Night Express, 11 P. M.

ARRIVE.—Night Express, 4 A. M.; Whitewater Accommodation, 9:25 A. M.; Mail and Day Express, 5:25 P. M.

CHANGE OF TIME ON THE LAKE SHORE ROAD.—On and after Monday, 9th, a train on the Lake Shore Road will leave here at 8:05 A. M.; arriving at Chicago at 12 M.

Second train will leave here at 3:15 P. M.; arriving in Chicago at 6:45 P. M. Freight trains leave here at 8:30 A. M., with passenger accomodations for way travel.

Trains leave Chicago for here at 9:30 A. M., and 4 P. M., arriving here at 1:15 P. M., and 7:50 P. M.

CHANGE OF TIME ON THE LA CROSSE ROAD.—On and after Monday, trains will leave here on the Mil. & Minn. Road, as follows:

Accommodation, 7:45 A. M.; Through Express, 1:55 P. M.; Portage City Express, 5 P. M.

Trains will arrive here as follows:

Portage City Express, 10:50 A. M.; Accommodation, 1 P. M.; Through Express 2:35 P. M.

NEW CO-PARTNERSHIP.—Attention is called to the new firm of LEFEVRE, GREENE & Co., who have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of carrying on a general Hardware and Agricultural Implement business. An examination of their stock will result in a flattering opinion of their business facilities, and a conviction that they can supply customers with everything in their line, on the most reasonable terms.

CHANGE OF TIME ON THE DETROIT & MILWAUKEE RAILWAY.—On and after Monday, the steamers Detroit and Milwaukee will leave here for Grand Haven, as follows:

Milwaukee, at 5 A. M.; Detroit, at 4 P. M. They will arrive at 10:30 A. M., and 9:30 P. M. Land at the dock foot of Main street.

COMING TO MILWAUKEE.—JOHN LIMBERT, of Ripon, whose willow ware attracted so much attention at the last State Fair, we see by the Ripon Times, is coming to Milwaukee, his business having increased so that he thinks it desirable to locate at a point which will give him a more ready access to all parts of the State.

EX-JUDGE FOOTE appeared in the Municipal Court on Saturday, not as Judge, but as complainant against F. SCHMELLING for using abusive language. During the examination of the case rather warm words passed between the parties, but the complaint was finally dismissed.

WE WERE INFORMED on Saturday, that the man who desired to eat a few of those apple rolls before he died, was heard to say "he wouldn't mind hanging himself, if for a halter they would use one of RUSSELL's neck ties." It is to be hoped that this young man will eat his apple roll, and leave town now.

VERILY THEY HAVE THEIR REWARD.—We observe that JOHN HORAN, of "Success to the Sepoys" notoriety, has been appointed one of the body guard of S. M. BOOTH. As yet Mr. H. is dressed in plain clothes, the Government not having determined upon the style of uniform for the newly-created guards.

BURYING NUISANCES.—The Investigating Committee on Saturday night, stated that $2,000 had been paid the last year for burying nuisances. This seems like a large sum—and the hint that breeding nuisances for the sake of burying them must be profitable—seems to us every way probable.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.—Rev. J. L. CORNING, of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver a lecture this evening at Albany Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the Dashaway Lodge of Good Templars. The subject is "Rational Hygiene".

Admission twenty-five cents.

MONTGOMERY GUARDS SOIREE.—The Guards give one of their pleasant soiree parties this (Easter Monday) evening at their Armory, Military Hall, opposite the American House, where and when they will be glad to see their friends, civil and military.

GOOD WORK.—We are happy to see our police doing their duty in regard to the prostitutes and pimps who infest our streets. A few more "hauls" and our City will breathe freer.

THE WISCONSIN of Saturday afternoon contains half a column of local matter taken from the SENTINEL. That sheet deserves more credit for its impudence than its industry, under the present local management.

HOUSE IN THE FOURTH WARD.—J. S. FILLMORE has a small comfortable house on Clybourn, near Fifth street, to rent at $11 per month.

Advice from an Experienced "Hand."

ANOTHER LARGE EGG.—H. Utt, has left a hen's egg at our office measuring 8 by 6 1-2 inches. Hard to beat.—Grant Co. Witness.

It is because you don't understand it, that it's 'hard to beat.' Take a knife and beat it.—Wisconsin.

The man who beats his eggs with a knife, probably eats them with a fork.

MUNICIPAL COURT, APRIL 7TH.—Stephen Elfick, disorderly, penalty and costs, $2,11. Paid.

Luther Huntsley, disorderly; penalty and costs $6,11 or 15 days in jail.

Michael Scullen, George Loomis, Edward Sidsbotham, Theron Bailey, Nicholas Burke, Wm. Bielfield, John Buckner and Sylvester Whipple, discharged.

Joseph Webber (on parole) penalty and costs $13,91 or 30 days in jail.

Belle Whipple, (on parole) penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail.

Mary Filkins, (on parole) penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail.

Sophia Rheinhardt, penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail. Committed.

Catharine Bowles, penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail. Committed.

Maria Filkins, penalty and costs $16,29 or 13 days in jail. Committed.

Christine Cooper, penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail. Committed.

Elizabeth Person, penalty and costs $16,29 or 30 days in jail. Committed.

The following are some of the indictments disposed of by the Grand Jury to-wit:

Fred. Hammacher, breaking and entering dwelling house. Arraigned, plead guilty; sentence deferred and remanded to jail.

Frank Drum and Michael Geary. Two indictments—breaking and entering dwelling house. Plead not guilty, and continued to April 9, 1860. In default of bail remanded to jail.

John Casey, Michael Collins and Thomas Blackwell—breaking and entering shop of A. C. Munson. Arraigned, plead guilty and sentence deferred. Defts. remanded to jail.

BALTIMORE OYSTERS.—FRANK RAYMOND is still receiving HATCH, MANN & Co.'s Baltimore Oysters at the Northeast corner of West Water and Spring streets. The warm weather need not prevent people from getting fresh and prime bivalves so long as FRANK RAYMOND is in town.

JESSEL, at 141 East Water street, will continue the sale at auction of his remaining stock of goods every day this week. He has among his goods, Clothing, Jewelry, Hardware, Cuttlery, Yankee Notions, Linens, Cloths, &c., &c., and is willing to let them slide below cost and fling in transportation. Be on hand at 10 o'clock precisely. Terms cash. apr3j517d1w

BAYLEY AND PATTERSON desire to call the attention of the public to their new Photograph, Ambrotype, Daguerreotype, Steelotype, Melanotype, and-every-other-type Gallery, No. 217 1-2 East Water St., a few doors north of the Juneau Bank, at the Gallery formerly occupied by Mr. E. W. FOWLER.

With our facilities for producing superior pictures and our desire to please, we hope to merit the patronage of all. Visits will always be acceptable, whether persons wish pictures or not. B. & P.

I thank the public for past favors and recommend my successors as gentlemen who will do all in their power to please.

PROCLAMATION.

LATE DEVELOPEMENTS in the examination of the Books of the City Clerk and Comptroller, indicate that quite a large amount of forged or spurious City Orders and Warrants are in circulation. Therefore, for the protection of the holders of City Orders and Warrants, as well as for the interests of the City, all persons having any City Orders or Warrants in their possession, are requested to present them for inspection and registry, at the Mayor's Office, without delay.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE!
Pills of Iron.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 9, 1860.

The Rhode Island Election.

The News and other Democratic organs are heralding the election of SPRAGUE, for Governor of Rhode Island, as a great Democratic triumph. Now the simple fact is, that Mr. SPRAGUE was the joint candidate of the Know-Nothings, Democrats and Union men, and it is difficult to say which of the three parties brought the greatest amount of political capital into the partnership. The N. Y. Tribune of Monday last says:

> "RHODE ISLAND holds her State Election to-day. We have before us three different ballots printed for and doubtless intended to be voted at this Election, which read as follows:
>
> American Republican Ticket:
>
> For Governor—William Sprague, of Providence.
> For Lt. Governor—J. Russell Bullock, of Bristol.
> For Sec'y State—John R. Bartlett, of Providence.
> For Att'y General—Walter S. Burges, of Cranston.
> For Gen. Treas.—Samuel A. Parker, of Newport.
>
> Conservative Union Ticket:
>
> For Governor, (&c., same as above).
>
> Democratic Convention Nominations:
>
> For Governor, (&c., same as above).
> Which of these three tickets is expected to lead, we do not know; but they altogether ought to poll a pretty heavy vote, especially as Mr Sprague, who leads them, is worth some millions, at the head of the largest business of the State (calico printing), and it is understood that the canvass has cost him and his intimate friends over $100,000. Mr. Bartlett is the present incumbent, and a good Republican. Burgess, we believe, is a Democrat, and Parker a South American, as is Sprague, if he is anything. The Democratic organs protest that they will not claim the success of this ticket as a party triumph, but we do not believe them.

The result proves that the Tribune had good reasons for its incredulity. No sooner is election over than the Democrats claim, as their exclusive triumph, what belongs equally to their natural allies, the Know-Nothings and the Union-Savers. We do not, however, object to their making much of this "crumb of comfort." They need it badly.

* * *

THE BADGER WAKED UP—OVERWHELMING VICTORY IN MILWAUKEE.—The Democracy of the "city of bricks" have proved themselves perfect "bricks" by the overwhelming majority they have given Wm. P. Lynde, for Mayor. The telegraph puts the majority at 1,000!!—All manner of electioneering dodges were practiced by the Republicans to defeat the ticket—by creating discord among the Democrats in charging Mr. Lynde as being hostile to Mr. Douglas. The game, however, would not work; the united Democracy were satisfied of his soundness, and have rolled up a majority that will be increased 500 by Mr. Douglas at the fall election.—Buffalo Republic.

The News of Saturday copies and leads the above paragraph; as if 1,000 Democratic majority in this city was something to crow over and 1,500 for DOUGLAS next fall, all the Democrats venture to claim. The Republicans, certainly, are content with the result of last Tuesday's election in Milwaukee, and are sanguine of giving a still better account of themselves next November.

WHAT NEW YORK STATE IS PREPARED TO DO.—The New York Tribune says:—"As to the vote of New York, we can speak with some confidence, though with no pretense of authority. Since, however, our opinion is asked, we give it; and its purport is that ANY ONE OF THE STATESMEN WHO HAVE BEEN SUGGESTED AS THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT CAN CARRY IT BY TWENTY THOUSAND MAJORITY. New York is a backbone Republican State, and will prove it incontestably next November. Nine-tenths of her Republicans prefer Gov. SEWARD to any other man, and she will send a unanimous delegation to Chicago to present and urge his claims to the nomination. They will go there backed by thirty-five Electoral Votes, which we regard as perfectly sure for their favorite, in case he shall be nominated."

MOBILE AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The annual report of this road, which has just been submitted to the stockholders, is a favorable showing of business. The total earnings of the year have been $1,120,588 51; the total expenses, $463,978 15; leaving net earnings $651,610 36. Of this there has been paid for interest on debt, $334,457 62; leaving as applicable to construction and rolling stock, $297,152 74. The net earnings, after paying all expenses, are 9 per cent. on the entire cost of the road, including machine-shops, rolling stock, and everything pertaining to it. The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The Company have made contracts, and taken bonds from parties of the highest responsibility for the completion of the unfinished portions of the road through Mississippi and Tennessee, with the exception of fifteen miles in Tennessee; and for this a contract is agreed upon, to be closed by bonds at an early day. By these contracts the entire road is to be completed, and the cars run from Mobile to Columbus, Ky., by the close of the present year."

During our recent trip to New Orleans we passed over eighty-seven miles of the Mobile & Ohio R. R., to-wit: from Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi River, to Jackson, Tenn. We found the road in capital order, and under excellent management. Judge MILTON BROWN, the energetic President of the Company, is devoting all his energies to the prosecution of the work, and hopes to take an excursion party from the North to Mobile and New Orleans within a twelvemonth.

* * *

TRADE OF THE UNITED STATES WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES.—The New York Courier & Enquirer publishes a table from which we learn that the exports of the United States for the fiscal year ending the 30th of June, 1859, was $359,000,462, and the imports $334,758,130. From Spain and Brazil we import, together, 38,000,000 more than they take from us. Large portions of the exports included under the heads of Great Britain and France are in fact intended for other countries, especially in the article of cotton.

Our imports and exports together (655,000,000) are less than the mere exports of domestic goods and produce of Great Britain. The cotton goods alone exported by that country in the year 1859, exceeded forty-eight millions sterling or about two hundred and forty millions of dollars.

* * *

DO THEY BURN NEGROES AT THE SOUTH?—The Vicksburg Sun says that a negro man belonging to Mr. WOOLFOLK, of Deer Creek, Miss., in a fit of passion plunged a knife into the heart of a fellow slave—a woman who worked on the same plantation. He then fled to the woods, but was captured by the dogs which were immediately put upon his track, and after a desperate resistance, bro't back. A council of the neighboring planters, before whom he was tried, decided to burn him at the stake, which was done in the presence of all the negroes on that and adjoining plantations, all of whom seemed terrified out of their wits on viewing so awful a scene. The spirit of the doomed negro was unsubdued. He died cursing his judges—his last words being that he would "take vengeance on them when they met each other in h—ll."

A REPUBLICAN PAPER IN KENTUCKY.—THOMAS L. DAWSON, editor of the Louisville (Ky.) Democrat, has published his valedictory, stating, in effect, that after issuing that paper for more than two years as a moderate DOUGLAS man, he can no longer do so "for conscience sake." He proposes to start a straight-out Republican paper in Clay Co., and says:

> "To carry a double face during the coming great struggle between right and wrong, in our opinion would be highly criminal; therefore, we were very glad to sell out at the first opportunity, that we might have our limbs free to fight on the side of right at the next election; as also that each party might have a paper to represent him."

* * *

DECREASE OF SLAVES IN DELAWARE.—Delaware is rapidly getting rid of her slaves. She had 8,000 at the first census, and but 2,000 at the last one. Their owners find it more profitable to sell them at the South than to keep them. Sussex county alone ships to the South, on an average, six per week, or three hundred and twelve a year. Every census shows a decrease of ten per cent in the slave population.

The War in Kentucky—Cassius M. Clay Threatened.

The following private letter from Mr. Clay shows that the agitation in Madison county is more serious than represented in the Kentucky papers. The letter is dated March 29, 1860:

"Yours of the 19th is received. I have only time to say that we are in a state of war.—The oligarchy were aiming at me in the expulsion of the Bereans from their homes, being in hopes that I would forcibly defend them, the 'radicals.' Defeated by my Frankfort speech, rallying all the conservitive men to my standard, they churlishly gave in, yet fanning the discontent by garbling my speeches North, and circulating false rumors. Hanson's return to his saw mill at Berea, (where he employed many Republicans,) gave new fuel to the old fire. I went there on Saturday, and tried to induce him to leave, telling him he would bring on a fight, and advising the Republicans to keep apart from the movement. The mob at once cried out that I was then plotting an attack. On Monday they met at Berea, insulted the people by searching their houses, and not finding Hanson, they provoked a conflict; and several were wounded, and the Lynchers defeated. On Tuesday they returned in force, but finding no one, they broke up the saw mill, and swore vengeance against me and the whole party. In the meantime (on Tuesday) I spoke at Richmond, stating that I was and had been for peace; that I stood upon the ground of my Frankfort speech, and should defend myself and friends. The mob increases in violence; I lie upon my arms awaiting an attack; my family absolutely refuse to retire, saying they will run bullets, and aid, as in 1776. If driven into the woods, I shall attempt to hold my position as long as possible; standing on the Constitution, the laws and my right, I will defend them or die. The cannon at Lexington is sent for, and the Governor aids.

Is this my cause only, or that of the American people? Is it to be vindicated in this way, and now? Shall I stand or fall alone? 'May God defend the right?'

Your Friend, CASSIUS M. CLAY.

P. S. My daughters are as firm as myself and Mrs. Clay. C."

Mr. Clay is the wrong man to be assailed in this manner, and he has too many friends, not only in Kentucky, but all the Free States, to be assailed with impunity. He will not, as he intimates, or rather asks, be allowed to stand or fall alone. The violence that shall strike down so magnanimous a defender of justice and freedom, will inevitably provoke a fearful recompense. We earnestly hope therefore, that the bullies who persecuted the Bereans will be wise in time.

The New York Pro-rata Bill Dead--A Substitute Adopted.

The Pro-rata Bill came up in the New York State Senate on Friday last for its third reading, and on motion a substitute was adopted providing for the appointment of Commissioners with power to regulate tariffs on railroads, suggested by and designed to meet the action of the Pennsylvania Legislature in appointing a similar Commissioner. The two States will thus be placed in treaty, and the combined operation of the two commissioners may be made to effect some permanent good.

The substitute, of which the following is a synopsis, was adopted by a vote of 20 ayes to 10 nays:

The substitute provides for the appointment by the Government and Senate of three Commissioners, to hold their office for one year, who shall meet with similar Commissioners, who may be appointed by other States, to devise and digest the project of a law to establish and secure uniform and equitable rates of compensation to be charged by the Railroad Companies of this State, in common with the railways of other States, for the transportation of property over such roads, and report their proceedings, together with the plan that shall have been agreed upon by them, to the next Legislature. The Commissioners are to receive $6 per day for active services and necessary traveling expenses—one-half to be paid by the Railroad Companies of the State. The Governor is required to transmit a copy of the act to the Governors of the several States, with the request that the subject be brought to the attention of the Legislatures of the several States.

THE ADDRESSING OF NEWSPAPERS.—The following copy of an act of Congress, approved by the President, has been forwarded by the Postoffice Department to the Postmaster of this city:

AN ACT authorizing publishers to print on their papers the date when subscriptions expire, and in relation to the postage on drop letters.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the second clause of section third of the act of thirtieth August, eighteen hundred and fifty two, establishing the rates of postage on printed matter, is hereby so modified as to read as follows, namely:

Second, There shall be no word or communication printed on the same after its publication, or upon the cover or wrapper thereof, except the name, the date when the subscription expires and the address of the person to whom it is to be sent.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That on all drop letters delivered within the limits of any city or town by carriers, under the authority of the Post Office Department, one cent each shall be charged for the receipt and delivery of said letters and no more.

Approved 3 April, 1860.

WALWORTH COUNTY.—The Elkhorn Independent brings the following returns from Walworth county:

Towns.	Sloan's maj.
Elkhorn	75
East Troy	144
Troy	7
Lafayette	38
Sugar Creek	60
Darien	158
Sharon	200
Delavan	227
Linn	124
Spring Prairie	117
Geneva	86
Lagrange	112
Whitewater	190
Hudson	130
Walworth	—
Bloomfield	—
Richmond	—
The above foot up at	1,663

And the three remaining towns gave Paine 300 majority last Spring. We put Walworth county down as good for 1850 majority for Sloan, and it may possibly reach 1800. The vote throughout the county was light for a Spring election—probably owing to the fine weather for sowing grain.

A SCHOONER BLOWN UP ON THE POTOMAC.—The schooner Volante, Captain Cox, was blown up and almost totally wrecked at Heard's Cove, on the Potomac River, a few days since. Mr. Wm. Cox was emptying some gunpowder into a can, in doing which, he spilled a small quantity of the powder on the locker and floor of the cabin, and while sweeping it up, he trampled upon a portion, which ignited, and communicating with the powder in the can, caused an explosion, which completely demolished the cabin and after part of the schooner. Mr. Purdy, who was forward at the time, ran aft to inquire the cause of the shock, and found the cabin torn up and stern blown out, Cox lying on the floor, his clothes on fire, and he apparently dead. He immediately got up anchor and ran the schooner to the nearest land, which he succeeded in reaching just as she settled down. Cox was removed from the vessel and taken home. His situation is considered precarious. The schooner is almost a total wreck.

SOME MISAPPREHENSION having arisen in consequence of the absence of royal patronage to the subscription in behalf of the widow of the late Captain Harrison, of the Great Eastern—an enterprise in which Her Majesty and the Prince Consort had taken so marked an interest—the following letter which has been received from Sir C. B. Phipps, K. C. B., will be interesting:

BUCKINGHAM PALACE, March 1, 1860.

SIR:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterday's date. I have the honor to acquaint you, in reply, that it is contrary to established rule for Her Majesty the Queen, or the Prince Consort, to join a subscription for a private individual. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

FIRE IN WARRINGTON NAVY YARD.—The Mobile Tribune publishes the following note from Warrington, dated 27th of March:

"A fire took place inside the navy yard about daylight this morning, destroying one of the prettiest buildings in the yard, known as the paint shop and cooperage. Loss from $76,000 to $100,000. It is supposed the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion."

The Prize-Fight---Sayers and Heenan--Tom and the Navvy.

LONDON, Friday, March 9.

The fight is fixed, I understand, for the 16th of April. It is of no use to deny here that public opinion is in favor of Tom Sayers. This is natural enough, since Tom is our champion and the hero of many fights.—Now, the Benicia Boy is not the champion of America. Thus, in case of defeat, your countrymen can apply this salve to their wounded feelings, whereas John Bull will have no possible excuse. The only thing which I dread is that Mr. Sayers will neglect his training. I heard of his being both in London and Brighton, long after he ought to have been snug in country quarters, inhaling the pure and bracing breezes of the Downs like his brave antagonist. In looking back at the history of the ring, it is astonishing how many good men have, one after another, been licked by new men for want of training. I hear that Tom is haunted by two captains, not "led-captains," but captains who led him into temptation. This will not do. I hope he is now settled into severe work, for I want to see a fair fight with no excuses. Every one is pleased with the deportment and style of Heenan, who is a true gladitorial gentleman. He is much liked. So indeed is Tom, concerning whom I am about to narrate to you an anecdote.

Some time since a sporting individual of my acquaintance was standing at the bar of a public house in Camdentown, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There were several "navvies" present, and among them a gigantic excavator, six feet two inches in height, and made in proportion, weighing about 248 lbs. This man, being somewhat of a bully, had contrived to create a much-abused ascendency over all his fellow-navvies. Among other things, he often expressed a desire to meet the champion, Sayers, whom he said he could knock out of time in five minutes.—On this occasion it was fated he should have an opportunity of seeing Sayers, and trying his prowess, if his courage did not fail him. As luck would have it, Sayers drove up in a gig with a friend, got down and asked quite unpretendingly, for a glass of ale. A whisper soon ran round, "That's him, that's Sayers, the champion." Of this Tom took no notice, being accustomed to admiration, and busy for the nonce in conversation with a friend at the bar.

The huge navigator approached him, clapped him on the back, saying, "So, thee beest Sayers, the Champion—a pretty champion surely"—surveying him from head to foot. Sayers paying no attention. "D'ye hear me, I'll drink with thee, champion;" to his friends, 'I'll drink with the champion, I will.' So he stretched his hand towards the glass containg Sayers' untasted ale. "No! no! my friend," said Tom, "not that glass, if you please; I don't like any man to drink out of my glass unless I ask him. Order anything you like, and I'll pay for it," [the fellow still stretching out his paw,] "but not that glass, if you please." "I tell thee, I will drink out of thy glass, and no other—champion's glass—he's a foine champion, he be; why, I could lick two such men as you be." "Don't be tiresome, my good fellow," said Sayers, "I shall be glad to give you anything you like to drink; but you see I am engaged with a friend; and don't drink out of my glass without my leave; that is all." These expressions were repeated with some variations, until at last the navvy seized the glass from before Sayers and drank its contents, with an oath, saying "There, I zed I would—I've drunk wi' the champion." In a moment, then, Sayers turned round and faced him. "Get yourself together," he shouted, "for I am going to hit you." The navvy took up his attitude, and the two began sparring. Sayers positively crouched like a tiger about to spring. One, two, three feints from Sayers, then the opening, and then the blows, left and right, one on the forehead and the other on the jaw, one of the bully. Down he went, his head striking the floor first, and lay there insensible. He was carried into an adjoining parlor; a doctor sent for; his skull was fractured, and the jaw broken! For four months, during which he could not work, Sayers maintained him. It is, perhaps, not strange that after this event, the navigator idolized his master.

Such is the sort of a man whom the Benicia Boy has bearded. Sayers says that he will either beat his opponent, or be carried dead out of the ring.—Correspondent N. Y. Daily Times.

Foreign Miscellany.

THE WHITWORTH GUN.—The English papers contain quite lengthy reports of the recent trials of the Whitworth gun, said to be superior in many ways to that of Sir William Armstrong. With a three pounder and an elevation of 35 degrees, loaded with eight ounces of powder, the first shot touched the ground at a distance of 9,688 yards—more than five and a half miles—and only 34 yards to the right of the true line. The second lodged in the sand, at 9,645 yards, and 31 yards to the right of the mark. With an elevation of 33 degrees, a range of 9,547 yards was obtained, the shot falling only 57 yards to the right of the mark. The greatest range ever reached by any Armstrong gun was 9,140 yards, and this with a thirty-two pounder, fired with a 6 lb. charge, at an elevation of 35 degrees. Mr. Whitworth claims that his guns also possess greater durability than any other. From one of them upwards of 1,500 shots have been fired chiefly at high elevations, without the gun exhibiting any injury or sign of wear. The material used in the manufacture is homogenous iron. The powder used is contained in a tin cartridge case, about seven inches long, at the end which meets the shot is a small lump of grease, which being melted by the explosion, lubricates the barrel from end to end. It is therefore, never necessary to use a sponge, the gun, at the end of a day's firing, being as clean and as bright as if it had not been used at all.

GOATEES FORBIDDEN.—A notification has been issued at Venice directed against the practice of persons wearing beards on their chins. To this irregularity another is added, viz.: that of wearing the hats called a la Cavour, which are considered as the emblem of the party opposed to the Imperial and Royal Government. The notice enjoins all to conform exactly to the Imperial order as regards the beard; and ordains that they cannot, moreover, on any account, be allowed to wear hats a la Cavour. For breaches of this order disciplinary punishments are prescribed.

A TRANSLATION of the "Correspondence of Alexander von Humboldt" with Varnhagen von Ense, from 1847 to 1853, which is now making so much noise on the continent of Europe, is announced to appear immediately by Messrs. Trubner & Co., in London. It will contain, in addition, numerous letters from distinguished savans, statesmen, &c., addressed to Humboldt—as Arago, Sir J. Herschel, Thiers, Sir Robert Peel, Wm. H. Prescott, Victor Hugo, extracts from Von Ense's Diaries, &c., and will form one volume octavo, of about 350 pages.

A baker in England stole a tombstone for the hearth of his oven. One of his customers, finding a deaths-head on the bottom of his loaf of bread, ran in dismay to his deacon, fearing the end of the world was approaching. The latter was in equal trepidation, when, on examining his own loaf he found the marrow-bones. In their alarm they had recourse to the parson, who could afford them no consolation, inasmuch as "Resurgam" was legibly set forth in bold relief upon his own loaf.

ACCORDING to the London correspondent of the Leeds Mercury, young Charles Dickens, the son of the great Charles, is going out to India to manage an Indian agency for the firm of Baring Brothers, in which, says the correspondent, he has long held a very responsible post, having been initiated into the mysteries of the merchant's craft by them. He has also another great friend in the financial world—Miss Burdett Coutts—who will back him, it is said, in any per se undertakings he may think it wise to undertake. So, without much speculation, we may anticipate living, perhaps, to see the great house of Dickens as famous in commerce as it is in literature. Doubtless his father could, if willing, add to his store, for current report says he has made £70,000 in the last ten years.

A LARGE BREWERY.—One of the largest establishments of the kind in the world is the brewery of Barclay & Perkins, situated in Southwark, London. This brewery was founded by Dr. Johnson's friend, Henry Thrale, who, in 1773 (according to the statement made by the doctor in his "Hebridian Tour,") was paying as much as $100,000 annually to the excise department. After Thrale's death, the executor sold it (for $685,000) to Barclay, a descendant of the author of the "Apology of the Quakers," and Perkins, who had been Thrale's chief clerk. Since that time the business has assumed vast proportions, as the following statistics will show: The building covers upwards of ten acres; two steam engines, equal to 76,000 horse power, are required to work the machinery; there are twenty-four malt bins, each equal in size to an extraordinary three-story house; and Westminster Hall is not much larger than the great brewing room. More than 100,000 gallons of water are used daily, and 2,000 quarters of Malt weekly. Ten brewing coppers have an aggregate capacity of 120,000 gallons; there are four fermenting vessels, each capable of holding 1,500 barrels of flour. The cooling floor has a surface of more than 1,000 square yards; 300 vessels, of 300 gallons each, are used in the working off of the yeast from the beer, which is stored in 150 vats, the longest of which holds 108,000 gallons, and the average gives 30,000 each. Two hundred horses and drays are employed in distributing beer to London retailers.

A HIGH RENT.—A hole in the crown of your bad hat.

INQUIRY ABOUT PEAS.—Mr. Freas:—You will very much oblige me by giving an answer to the following question, through the columns of your paper: We read that very deep planting is good for peas, causing them to bear for a long time. What is the best season, and the best method for planting peas. Very respectfully yours, C.

Enterprise, Lancaster county, Pa.

REMARKS—We presume our correspondent knows little about gardening, and we therefore comply briefly with his request. As a rule, peas should be planted deep, say from two and a half to three inches, giving the plants a firm hold in the soil, and thus enabling them to obtain a sufficient supply of moisture and nutriment. The pea is a gross feeder, and requires a rich soil. Two rows of peas, one foot apart, should be put in a bed the supports being placed between. Peas can be planted as soon as the frost is out of the ground. The first crop should be the Extra Early and Early France; the latter coming some ten days later; these should be followed by the Dwarf Blue Imperial, Tom Thumb, Champion of England and Eugenia. These will afford a succession of crops of the best varieties known.—Germantown Telegraph.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,

Prepared by Cornelius L. Cheeseman, M.D.,
NEW YORK CITY.

THE COMBINATION OF INGREDIENTS in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, pain in the back and limbs, &c., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES,

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all that they represent to do.

NOTICE.

There is one condition of the female system in which the Pills cannot be taken without producing a PECULIAR RESULT. The condition referred to is PREGNANCY—the result, MISCARRIAGE. Such is the irresistible tendency of the medicine to restore the sexual functions to a normal condition, that even the reproductive power of nature cannot resist it.

Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by Mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheeseman, Box 4531, Post Office, New York City.

Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

THE EARLY BLUE-BIRD.

BY MRS. L. H. SIGOURNEY.

Blue-bird! on yon leafless tree,
Dost thou carol thus to me,
"Spring is coming! Spring is here!"
Say'st thou so, my birdie dear?
What is that in misty shroud,
Stealing from the darkened cloud?
Lo! the snow flakes' gathering mound
Settles o'er the whitened ground,
Yet thou singest, blithe and clear,
"Spring is coming! Spring is here!"

Strik'st thou not too bold a strain?
Winds are piping o'er the plain,
Clouds are sweeping o'er the sky,
With a black and threatening eye;
Urchins by the frozen rill,
Wrap their mantles closer still;
Yon poor man with doublet old,
Doth he shiver with the cold?
Hath he not a nose of blue?
Tell me, birdling—tell me true?

Spring's a maid of mirth and glee,
Rosy wreathes and revelry;
Hast thou wooed some winged love
To a nest in verdant grove?
Sung to her of greenwood bower,
Sunny skies that never lower?
Lured her with thy promise fair,
Of a lot that ne'er knows care?
Prithee, bird in coat of blue,
Though a lover—tell her true.

Ask her, if when storms are long,
She can sing a cheerful song?
When the rude winds rock the tree,
If she'll closer cling to thee?
Then the blasts that sweep the sky,
Unappalled shall pass thee by;
Though thy curtained chamber show,
Sittings of untimely snow,
Warm and glad thy heart shall be,
Love shall make it Spring for thee.

From Sharp's London Magazine.

MY GHOST.

A BEAUTIFUL AND TRUE STORY.

"Your friend, Sir Hercules," she wrote, "was married last week. I have seen the announcement in this morning's newspaper." Certainty is better than uncertainty; the fall of Damocle's sword is more bearable than its suspension. I need not narrate here how by degrees I regained my peace of mind—a peace of mind truer and healthier than had been my former cynocism. I learned to look on Daisy's marriage in its true light. What right had I (dog in the manger as I was) to dream of monopolizing her who could not marry me—whom my kin had injured beyond redemption? Without marriage a woman's life was incomplete in this world.—Lowther would make her a good and loyal husband—better than I should. Lowther had never been near so wild as I had—had never so hardened and debased his better nature. I forgave Daisy—forgave? Could she have forgiven me?

My mother died before I reached England again. Nevermore could that sad quarrel be renewed. Now I felt that great wrong she had done, she had done solely through love. My soul hungered after love, and turned and gnawed itself in its desperate cravings. I can understand how friendless people in their loneliness gather dumb animals about them.

I settled down to my profession, and worked hard. My miseries passed away, and the acuteness of my feelings became numbed under the influence of close study. Ambition awoke within me. The more I succeeded the more I wished to succeed; the further I advanced on the road, the longer grew the road before me. Aided by favorable circumstances, my progress was faster than usual at the bar. At the age of thirty-five my practice was large. If ever I looked back to the love-dream of my romantic boyhood, it was upon some childish toy. I smiled as I recollected the old passion, the soreness of heart, the bitterness of spirit, the weariness of life. I scarcely believed it could all have been true; I wondered at my former self—half regretted that I was so utterly changed. I was not sure that I had a heart now. If that mysterious organ still existed within me, it slept quietly enough. To have awakened it for a moment; to have felt the wild tumultuous struggle of which I had a vague remembrance; to have felt even one twinge of the sharp pain, this would have been a luxury to me now. My pulse was steady and regular: the blood-mechanism beat strongly and calmly in my left side; my head was cool and clear. I had over-lived the age for that heart-fever. We come through those diseases as children thro' their childish complaints, and our moral constitutions were the healthier that we had passed through them and were rid of them.

About this time I determined to marry. I was rich, I had many friends, but I had no home; I felt the lack of those domestic comforts, and that social position which only marriage can give. This was a very different feeling to that loneliness which had weighed me down after my mother's death. It was partly in a form of duty that I entertained this idea of marriage, partly in the form of a sober selfish advantage. It was desirable to change my bachelor-life, which was becoming somewhat wearisome. A mansion in the more civilized portion of the town would be an improvement on my dusty chambers within Temple Bar. I felt that it was incumbent on me to take that station of life in which I had been called, as other men did, to exercise the duties of hospitality, to cultivate the household amenities, to obey the laws of Nature and Society; and if it might be so, to rear children around me, who should succeed to my name and fortune and fill my place after I was gone. So I began to look round for a wife. My friends soon learned that I was a marrying-man, and recommendations came to my ears of So-and-so's sister, and Such-an-one's daughter. Mammas smiled on me with increased favor, and incited their offspring to display for me their virtues and accomplishments. Many a faultless filly, from model training-stables, was put through her paces for my behoof. Having decided on the expediency of marrying, I had decided too on the necessary qualifications for my wife. Soberly and quietly, as beseemed a sensible man, I had reasoned out the whole matter. Moderate beauty, a moderate fortune, the conventual accomplishments, a good manner, and perfect good breeding. Surely a hundred such girls come from their nurseries into the marriage-market every year.

Very opposite was this marriage project to the foolish engagement of fifteen years ago. Then an insane fancy for a child like myself had nearly hurried me into a matrimonial condition for which both of us were yet unripe. We were unfitted for each other. It would have been a sacrifice on both sides.—How unsatisfactorily would Daisy have filled the office which I now looked for in a wife! The woman of my search was the very antipodes to her. I was wiser since that time, and now judged of the holy institution of marriage by the light of that reason which God had given me. I saw the wisdom and expediency of the condition, and sought to adapt that condition to my own particular requirements. Then an impulsive passion for an individual had impelled me towards marriage; now, having syllogistically proved the desirableness of marriage, I made deliberate search for the individual who should be the fit means to the accomplishment of that end. It is by the heart only that man is misled; let him use his reason and he is safe.

I had professional business in the North of England, and I arranged to stay for a night, on my way, at the seat of a friend in one of the midland counties. Of course this friend had a daughter. I went to view this daughter, as I should have gone to look at the points of a horse which I thought might suit me, if I had wanted a horse. I had seen Miss Dalton in London, during the last season.—She had all the requisite advantages which I have mentioned above; and to his favored person, I the Grand Seigneur, felt inclined at length to throw the handkerchief. I would see her at home and then make up my mind in the affirmative or negative. On the railway platform I met an old friend—no other than Lowther. He was in deep mourning, and his black dress, together with the change which time had worked on him, made me at first uncertain of his identity. However, in a moment we recognized each other, shook hands, and took our seats in the same carriage. My heart gave one throb and slept again. I had not seen Lowther since his marriage. He had broadened into a portly country gentleman, and his stolid countenance had gained a gravity which looked not unlike wisdom. His deep voice had a majestic roll in it, and his low speech a deliberatio suggestive of well-weighed words. I was amused at the form into which his juvenile stolidity had ripened. I learned from his conversation that his wife was not long dead.

Again, the throb of my heart had a long, quivering tremor, ere it subsided to rest. Poor Daisy! Her girlish figure rose before me vividly for a moment, and then gradually faded. I noted on Lowther's finger a memorial ring of brown hair, and on it imprinted "Margaret." Lowther was bound for an estate of his in the north, not far from my ultimate destination. He made me promise to come to him for a day before I returned to London. A meeting with an old fellow-colleague is always pleasant; this sociality of those early days retains its hold upon us through life. Lowther and I, for this and other causes, were glad to see each other, and shook hands heartily and warmly when we seperated.

My reception by the Daltons was kindly, and had that domestic charm about it which is wondrously agreeable to the bachelor. It is something to be received famille when one has not a home of one's own. I liked Amy Dalton better in the old-fashioned country-house than in the London ball-rooms. I liked her kindness to the children when they came down after dinner. Children can not be bribed or scolded into acting love where they do not feel love. I liked the hints which I heard of household handiness, and of homely duties diligently performed by her. I liked her stories about the village folk, showing not in the way of exhibition, how she visited their cottages and read to them. Above all, I liked her because she did not try to captivate me, did not parade her accomplishments and her virtues before me. I had seen too much of that lately. All these little favorable traits were so much thrown in over and above the essentials in the bargain which I meditated.

H. W. ANGER,

PRACTICAL OPTICIAN,

RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCES TO the Public, that he has imported from RATHENOW, in GERMANY, and now offers for sale, a large assortment of

PERSPECTIVE EYE GLASSES
AND SPECTACLES

of the finest purified flint, which show the clearest and most correct copies. As these glasses permit every ray of light to pass completely through them they will not only enable the party using them to do the finest eye-work without injury, but will preserve and even strengthen the sight, which very often, by other glasses is ruined.

My SPECTACLES are celebrated for the superior and high optic nature of the glasses, as well as NEATNESS and ELEGANCE of finish, for which they received at the World's Fairs, both Paris and London, the first premiums, (viz: Gold Medals), being the best specimens on exhibition. Many years experience and a thorough knowledge of optics, enable me to select such glasses for those requiring the r use, as will ensure entire satisfaction.

SAVE YOUR CARPETS!

THE GREAT ENQUIRY HAS BEEN made for a number of years by housekeepers, what shall we put under our carpets to protect them from wear and moth? This grand, valuable discovery was affected and patented April 1st, 1856, by J. R. HARRINGTON, and is called Harrington's Patent Carpet Lining.

This article having proved its utility has now come into general use, so much so that scarcely a carpet will be put down without it, and its cheapness puts it within the reach of every family. It is warranted to add fifty per cent to the durability of Carpets Oil Cloths and Matting. The details of its merits are too numerous to mention. It can be obtained at any of the principal Carpet Stores throughout the United States, and is manufactured only by the New York Carpet Lining Company. Also, extensive manufacturers of Mammoth Cotton Batting, and Comfortables. The best and cheapest that have ever been introduced in the market.

Office 11 Dey St.; Salesroom 440 Pearl St., New York.

All orders of information requested will be attended to with promptness and dispatch.

Under the supervision of the patentee,

SOUTH AND NORTH:

OR,

Impressions Received During a Trip to Cuba and the South.

BY JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.

1 vol., 12mo, 352 pages. Price $1.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

From the New York Independent.

"THE VERY BEST BOOK ON SLAVERY YET ISSUED. Sound, judicious, kind, Christian, and most timely and faithful. * * * The author rehearses in a graphic way the measures of violence which "SOUTHERN AGGRESSION" has of late so systematically pursued; and, while condemning the crazy zeal of John Brown, he shows that his heroic self-denial for the oppressed puts to shame the coward fury of the South for oppression. Yet the tone of the book, while candid, frank and manly, is always kind and gentlemanly.

NOT SECTIONAL BUT FRATERNAL: not partisan but Christian. He points the South to the simple remedy for existing evils, by substituting wages for the lash, free labor for coerced toil.

From the New York Tribune.

Its animated descriptions, and the frankness and cordiality of its tone are adapted to give it a favorable reception, even with readers who differ most widely from him in opinion. * * * * * The topics to which this volume is devoted, and the spirit in which they are discussed, though they may arouse a tempest of opposition from those who regard silence as the only guaranty of safety, will secure it a wider circulation among the Friends of Freedom throughout the country.

From the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy.

It is a contemptible Abolition production, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young.

From the Detroit Christian Herald.

It furnishes valuable information on the questions now agitating our country.

From the Hartford Evening Press.

His impressions are such as would be derived by any honest fair-minded Northern man. It is warm, direct, eloquent.

From the New York Observer.

The book is intensely and avowedly abolition.

(ESTABLISHED 1778.)

SOLE IMPORTERS

No. 338 Broad Street, New York

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties. (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's [Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, April 7—3 P. M.

George W. Baker, of Philadelphia, editor of the Pennsylvanian, was before Mr. Covode's committee this forenoon. He testified to holding a clerkship at $1,200 salary, in the Custom House, but was unable to say how much he performed, or how much during the year, whether he occupied an office in the building, why his name was not entered in the daily register like the names of other clerks, or how it came to be omitted from the blue book. He admitted being connected with the President by marriage.

George Pitt is detained in Philadelphia by sickness in his family, but will answer the summons on Monday or Tuesday.

Information has been received by the State Department concerning the recent capture of the brig Jehossee on the coast of Africa, by the British sloop-of-war Falcon, under auspicious circumstances. The cargo of the brig and previous connection with some of the parties of the Wanderer's slave expedition, create misgivings as to her true character.

The Pacific R. R. committee is vacillating as to the bill to be reported. Yesterday one proposition was made to designate which pass of the mountains it should cross, and another requiring it to run by Salt Lake City. The committee assembles to-morrow for final action. Mr Aldrich of Minn., has steadily advocated the proposition to authorize the construction of three roads, leaving capital to seek the best route.

The telegraph company will accept the bill as amended by the House, though they consider it as hardly fair to limit messages to California at $3.

The Covode corruption committee has summoned, or intend to summon, Thurlow Weed, Moses H. Grinnell, J. F. Butterworth, Simeon Draper, R. M. Blatchford, John A. Kennedy, E. D. Morgan, Horace Greeley and Mr. Dana of the Tribune, Isaac Sherman, W. H. Seward, J. B. Haskin, H. J. Raymond, Gov. Banks, Simeon Cameron, Palmer, Cook & Co. and W. L. Baring of Minnesota, to step up and tell what they know about Republican expenditures to control elections. This is done at the instance of Governor Winslow, the Democratic member of the committee.

The Secretary of War has notified the chairman of the House committee on Military affairs, that he is now ready to recommend the raising of a volunteer regiment for Texas.

Later from Havana.

NEW YORK, April 7—3 P. M.

The steamer Cahawba, from New Orleans and Havana, arrived here this morning, bringing Havana dates of the 2d of April.

There was nothing new in Havana.

The Morocco war continues with a rush of friends.

The Miramon excitement is not over, but mostly confined to rumors.

There has been a difficulty at Cienfuegos between some seamen of the U. S. steamer Wyandotte, and the night watches of that city. One man belonging to the steamer was killed by the soldiers.

Arrival of the Steamer Canadian.

PORTLAND, April 7—3 P. M.

The steamer Canadian, from Liverpool, 21st, arrived last night. The following are the latest commercial advices, which failed to come to hand by the Kangaroo: Breadstuffs steady; provisions quiet, but unchanged.

NEW YORK, April 7—3 P. M.

The steamers Illinois and City of Washington sailed this morning for Europe. The former took 146 passengers, and the latter 164 passengers.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 7—9 P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Trumbull presented a petition of the citizens of Ill., setting forth that general alienation exists in the Union, caused by the discussion of the subject of slavery in Congress, and they pray that body to recommend to all legislatures a change in constitution for establishing the States and Territories, north of which slavery is to be prohibited, and south of which it is not to be interfered with by Congress or the States. Mr. Trumbull moved that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Green.—"It affects the territories and had better go to that committee."

Mr. Trumbull supposed that as they asked a change of the constitution the judiciary committee would be more appropriate; so it was referred to that committee.

Mr Wilson offered a resolution calling on the P. O. Department for all the correspondence with Mr. Cook, the late Chicago Postmaster, in relation to the condition of that office. Adopted.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed fourteen private bills.

Later from Mexico.

PENSACOLA, April 6—9 P. M.

The following advices from Mexico have been received, by the arrival of the sloop-of-war Savannah:

Miramon commenced withdrawing his forces from before Vera Cruz, on the morning of March 21.

Juarez's forces were so near out of powder that it was believed had Miramon remained longer, he would have had succeeded in capturing the city.

On the evening of the 23d, the steamer Indianola brought to an anchorage off the city, a bark, which it had captured southward, in the neighborhood of Alvarado.

The bark carried the Spanish colors, and professed to be bound to Galveston, Texas.

The captain gave as an excuse for being so near the Mexican coast, that his compass was disordered. There was a strong suspicion entertained that she was the third vessel mentioned in the intercepted despatches of Miramon.

The steamer Indianola had been purchased by Juarez and placed in the service of the Government.

Later from Europe.

HALIFAX, April 7—9 P. M.

The steamer Niagara from Liverpool, at 10 A. M. of the 24th, and Queenstown the following day, arrived here at three o'clock this P. M.

The screw steamer Balbec was to leave shortly after the Niagara, for Halifax and New York, taking the place of the Jura.

The news is important and interesting.—[Here the lines failed east of Toledo.]

CLEVELAND, April 7—9 P. M.

The Cleveland Institute was partially burned to-day, and will be closed for the summer term. Loss covered by insurance.

CINCINNATI, April 7—9 P. M.

A fire, Thursday, at Manchester, Ohio, twelve miles above Maysville, destroyed forty buildings. Loss $50,000; insurance not known.

A WOMAN'S THOUGHTS ON BONNETS.—A lady correspondent of the Springfield Republican, writes from New York.

"The bonnet is the frame to the picture. A pretty face wants the setting to add luster to its loveliness. A homely one hopes, by a happy combination of tints, to soften its ugliness, or to suggest a beauty which it does not possess. The present bonnets look like coal scuttles, and will hardly succeed in making any one handsomer. In their anxiety to grow large all of a sudden, they have burst out behind as well as before. They may be decidedly stylish, but they are not graceful. A high, pointed shelf, protruding over the forehead, and a bag of lace hanging out of the crown, large enough for a work pocket, it is anything but artistic. Still it is refreshing to see heads crowned with flowers, instead of feathers. To me, there was always an incongruity in the thought of robbing poor ostriches and smaller birds of their pretty tails, in order to trick out feminine heads. But flowers are a natural ornament. Doubtless one of the first things which Eve did was to knot flowers in her hair, and to this day flowers and rare imitations of flowers make the most simple and beautiful adorning of her multiplied daughters. The most graceful spring hat worn is the simple straw, (void of the silk or lace crown,) trimmed with budding green, or violet tints, and clusters of spring flowers.

WINTER WHEAT in this region is said to be looking and doing well in most fields where it has been sown. Though the winter and spring has not been the most favorable for this grain, still it has a remarkably vigorous, thrifty appearance.—Watertown Dem.

MAPLE SUGAR.—From all accounts it would seem that this is an unusually favorable spring for making sugar. Large quantities are daily arriving, and there is much more kept back waiting for opportunities to come to market at the close of the sugaring season.—Kewaunee Enterprise.

NOTICE.

THE SUBSCRIBER BEING ABOUT TO leave the city for several months, would request all persons having accounts either in favor or against him, to present them to Chas. Caverno, Albany Buildings, for settlement, between this day and April 1st. GEO. K. KIMBALL.

MONETARY.

SATURDAY, P. M., April 7, 1860.

We have nothing new to notice in money matters. There is a good demand for Exchange on the East, and the selling rate remains at 2 premium. Business at the banks is still light, owing to the quietness in the produce markets. Currency is plenty, and no trouble experienced in negotiating good paper at the current rates.

The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday has the following:

There was a steady demand for money to-day—not quite so large as yesterday, but sufficient to absorb the means held by the regular houses for investment, at 10@12 per cent. The movements on the part of lenders, however, were free. All paper that commanded confidence was taken without hesitation, indicating a feeling of security, on the part of capitalists, as to the future. In outside circles there were sales of good paper at 12 per cent., but the offerings of business names were light, for the reason that this class of borrowers are pretty fully accommodated through the regular channels.

In the market for Eastern Exchange, the movements indicated some regularity as regards the supply and demand. In some quarters there was a scarcity, which induced purchases of private checks at 45, while in others, there being a supply equal to the demand, there was no disposition to pay over 40 prem. Upon the whole, however, the market was firm, with a demand fully equal to the supply, but there were no indications of an advance. The selling rates were uniform at ½ prem, excepting the Valley Bank, which continued to draw as heretofore at ¼.

The Chicago Press & Tribune of this morning says:

There continues to be an active demand for Eastern exchange at 2 per cent premium, and the market is firm at that figure; but there is no prospect of any advance at present, in view of the speedy commencement of shipments of produce by lake. Currency is in active demand, with a fair supply. There has been a much larger amount of produce paper offering within the past two or three days, but our bankers, public and private, seem to have well prepared to meet it.

Milwaukee Wholesale Market.

The general wholesale trade has improved very materially since last week, and in some departments more activity prevails than is usually the case so early in the season. Our merchants are earlier in the field this season with their spring stocks than those of any other Western City, and their enterprise is meeting a just reward. We are cognizant of several instances within the past two weeks in which dealers from Iowa, and Minnesota, who had gone to Chicago with the intention of buying, came back here and purchased, not being able to have their orders filled as completely or satisfactorily in that city as in Milwaukee. Our Dry Goods jobbers especially have been kept busy; and between the shipping and receiving of goods, our principal streets have presented a very pleasing contrast with the excessive dullness that prevailed during the first few weeks of spring.

This desirable change is due in no small degree to our improved facilities of transportation from the sea board before the opening of Lake navigation. Large quantities of merchandize have been landed here every day during the past two months by the D. & M. Railway steamships, and we are informed by some of our merchants that they are getting their spring goods by this route at but a trifle higher freight than formerly by Lake, and with greatly increased despatch.

We invite the attention of country merchants to the list of prices in the next column, and if they think they can purchase at lower figures anywhere else adding the difference in transportation, they have only to convince our jobbers of the fact to be able to buy still more cheaply. At all events they may rest assured that Milwaukee wholesale merchants will no be undersold, especially when the terms are cash.

CHICAGO MARKET, APRIL 6TH.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	1,085
Wheat, bus	7,555
Corn, bus	23,048
Oats, bus	3,676
Barley, bus	1,201
Rye, bus	350

The Press & Tribune says.

The inquiry for flour to day was unusually light, and the market was flat and heavy, with but few transactions, at $4,30 for fair spring extras, and $3,75 for superfine. The downward tendency in the wheat market continues. To-day at the opening it fell 1c, and closed heavy and dull, with little or no inquiry except to meet maturing contracts—the sales ranging from 96@97c for fresh receipts No. 2 spring, and 95c for old receipts of same grade. The more favorable news by the Kangaroo and by the New York dispatches probably checked the decline somewhat; and at the close it was quiet and neglected. The upward movement in the corn market noted yesterday, continued this morning, and a further advance of ½c took place, but at this improvement a large quantity was thrown on the market, and liberal sales took place at the extreme figures paid yesterday; but it eventually broke down and closed at a decline of ½c. The transactions foot about 60,000 bus all at 47@48½c for fair to good river mixed afloat; 41½@45½c for No. 1 in store; 42@43½c in store; and 40@41c for rejected in store.

Oats were again dull and heavy, and the market declined 2c, with sales of new receipts No. 1 in store at 30c, and 30c for lots in bags and gunnies on track.—Rye in fair demand, with sales of 52c delivered, and 54c for choice white on track. There was a better demand for Barley, and lots met with a more ready sale—good to prime by sample ranging from 72@75c on track, and No. 2 at 51@52c in store. Highwines were dull and prices fell about ½c—1@18½c being the range. Alcohol, 40c. Timothy Seed quiet. Hungarian Grass active at 60c. Clover Seed neglected.

In Provisions we hear of but very little worthy of note. To-day a lot of 5,000 bbls Mess Pork was shipped to New York by railroad; and this leaves here a comparatively small stock—not to exceed 7,500 bbls, and of this we know of 1,520 bbls which will be shipped very soon. The stock of Cut Meats is very trifling. We hear of four or five thousand pieces of Hams and Shoulders in pickle, part of which is owned in New York and will be shipped in a week or two. There is little or no Lard here.

Freights declined 1c—vessels having been taken at 7c for corn to Buffalo, 11c for corn to Kinston, and 11½c for wheat.

ST. LOUIS MARKET, APRIL 4TH.—Receipts at St. Louis on Wednesday by river included: 500 sacks barley, 6,979 sacks corn, 400 bbls flour, 6,979 sacks and 10,000 bus wheat; by Railroad: 2,405 sacks corn, 428 bbls flour. The Democrat has the following report of the market:

FLOUR—Market remains dull; only small sales reported, viz: 735 bbls U S Mills city superfine at $5,35; 125 bbls good country extra at $5,50 ⅌ bbl, 100 bbls do at same; 50 bbls low grade do at $4,70; 400 sacks city superfine at $2,75 ⅌ sack, and 100 bbls superfine at $5,50, though some offered to sell at less rates this, an the market is unsettled.

WHEAT—Market dull; sales 260 sacks spring at $1,07½ ⅌ bus; 100 sacks do at $1,05; 100 sacks do at $1,06; 102 sacks club at $1,05; 250 sacks do at $1,12; 130 sks poor fall at same; 59 do at $1,15; 150 do at $1,13; 31 and 60 do at $1,22@1,27; 180 do at $1,30; and 59 and 76 sacks prime white at $1,32½@1,46.

CORN—Quite dull; sales of 173 sacks prime white at 60c ⅌ bus. 670 sacks do at 55c; 400 sacks prime red and white at 54@55c; 2,000 sacks good red and white at 50@51½c; 1,200 do in lots at 45c; 649 do at 47½c; 469 at 47c; 300 at 45c, and 1,300 sks mixed at 45c; also 500 sks mixed at 45c, delivered.

OATS—Some small lots choice, for seed brought 50c, but the average was 45c: 875 sks sold at 43c ⅌ bushel; 278 sks at 44@44½c; 350 sks at 45c; 200 at 43½c, and 500 sks in lots at 43c ⅌ bus, and 462 sks at 45c.

Weekly Review of Milwaukee Markets.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Saturday, P. M., April 7th.

The week has been a very dull one in the produce market, and quite devoid of any interesting features. Receipts have continued light, footing up for the week only 28,052 bushels of grain, and until yesterday prices had a drooping tendency. A slight improvement at New York yesterday, gave a more firm tone to our market, and the current prices for wheat to-day were 99c for old receipts of No. 1 in store; $1 for new do; $1,03@1,04 for fair milling qualities, and $1,05@1,06 for Extra delivered in bags, which are about the same as the prices ruling at the close of last week. The bulls begin to gain courage from the continued light receipts and talk in a decidedly more cheerful strain than they did a week or two ago; while those interested in keeping down prices confidently assert that the light deliveries are entirely attributable to the early spring work absorbing all the time and attention of farmers this fine weather, and predict a heavy decline soon as receipts at the principal points shall increase to any considerable extent. It is proper to add in this connection that none seem inclined to speculate very extensively just now on the strength of higher prices.

In flour there has been a moderate degree of activity at $4,75@5 for good to choice Extras, and $5,12@$5,25 for fancy brands, and there was small sale of "Stone Mills" as high as $5,37½ delivered at the mill.

The market for coarse grains presents nothing new to note. Oats have been without variation selling at 30@31c. Corn very dull, and not saleable at more than 45c. Barley quiet at 69@72c for best qualities. Rye rather lower, buyers offering but 75c at the close. Timothy seed firm, at previous prices, but very little offering, especially of the better qualities. No change of consequence in other articles.

The receipts and principal sales of produce for the week will be found below:

FLOUR—Receipts for the week 2,846 bbls. Sales: Monday—500 bbls spring Extras at $4,40@5,00 for fair to choice brands; 300 bbls "Niagara" Extra at $5,12½ all free on board. Tuesday—60 bbls "Merchant Mills," low grade of Extra, at $4,25. Wednesday—80 bbls "Juneau" spring Extra at $5,00 on the track; 100 bbls "Sauk City" do at $5,10 on the track; 200 bbls "Stone Mills" do at $5,37½. Thursday—100 bbls spring Extra, brand not reported, at $4,70; 1,000 bbls "Stone Mills" Extra on p. t.; understood to be at $5,25. Friday—100 bbls "T. S. West's" spring Extra at $4,50; 250 bbls "Niagara" do at $5,12½; 80 bbls "Vienna" do at 4,75. Saturday—500 bbls "City Mills" extra at $5,00 f. o. c.; 20c higher than the same brand sold for in the early part of last week.

WHEAT—Receipts for the week 28,212 bus. Sales: Monday—2,000 bus No. 1 in store (new receipts) at 99c; 700 bus No. 1 on track at 99c, 150 bus do delivered at $1; 600 bus Club by sample at $1,04 delivered; 695 bus Extra delivered at $1,06; 200 bus do on the track at $1,06. Tuesday—3,000 bus No. 1 in lots, in store and on track, at 99c; 825 bus do delivered at 99c; 600 bus Club delivered at $1,04; 50 bus Extra at $1,06. Wednesday—850 bus No. 2 on track at 97c, 150 bus No. 1 (old receipts) in store at 99c; 200 bus do (new receipts) in store at 99c; 350 bus do on the track at $1; 150 bus do delivered at $1; 50 bus club delivered at $1,03; 400 bus do do at $1,04; 200 bus Extra delivered at $1,05. Thursday—700 bus No. 1 on the track at $1; 300 bus do in store (new receipts) at 99c; 200 bus Club delivered at $1,02; 30 bus do at $1,04; 825 bus Extra delivered at $1,05; 250 bus do delivered at $1,09; 460 bus red winter at $1,08; 65 bus white winter at $1,10; 40 bus do at $1,12; 100 bus do at $1,12½; 100 bus do at $1,18. Friday—700 bus No. 1 in store (old receipts) at 98c; 700 bus do new at 99c; 300 bus do delivered in bags at $1; 300 bus choice No. 1 by sample at $1,01 delivered; 100 bus do at $1,02; 100 bus Club delivered at $1,04, 300 bus Extra do at $1,06; 250 bus do on p. t. Saturday—650 bus No. 1 on track at 99c; 300 bus do at $1 delivered; 65 bus Club on track at $1,03; 500 bus do del. at $1,04; 500 bus extra del. at $1,06.

OATS—Receipts for the week 2,921 bush. Sales: Monday—500 bus delivered at 31c; Thursday—125 do at 31c. Friday—500 bus do at 31c. Saturday—400 bus delivered at 31c.

BARLEY—Receipts for the week 1,916 bus. Sales 205 bus Extra on Monday, at 69c; 70 bus do at 70c; Tuesday—68 sacks do on track at 71c; Wednesday—83 sacks at 69c. Friday—100 bus Extra at 82c. Saturday—300 bus extra at 72c; 50 bus do at 75c.

CORN—Receipts for the week 1,759 bushels. Sales: 400 bus shelled delivered at 48c. Several other small sales were made at the same figure. Saturday—150 bus shelled at 47½c.

RYE—Receipts for the week 244 bus. Some trifling lots sold at 79c in the early port of the week; but it is quoted dull to-day at 75@76c.

GRASS SEED—Receipts for the week 47 bus. No much offering. We quote timothy firm at $2,00@2,75 for fair to choice.

HIDES—Receipts 536. Prices unchanged. Green 6½@7c; green salted 7@7½c; dry salted 12@13c; dry flint 14c.

SPIRITS—Market pretty active at previous prices. Highwines 20c; whiskey 17@18c; alcohol 42c.

BUTTER—Receipts by Railroad for the week 7,107 lbs.; receipts by Lake 4,000 lbs. Prime butter, either roll or firkin, has been scarce and commanded good prices for home use; say 11@12c for firkin; and 12@14c for roll. Shippers did not pay outside of 9c for firkin in good shipping order, and considerable quantities were sold at that price.

LUMBER—Receipts for the week:

Lumber, ft	421,000
Lath, "	35,000
Shingles, "	79,400
Black Walnut do	35,000
Pickets, do	4,000

We have no sales to report, the arrivals being all on account of owners. Market prices are not yet established. The indications at present are that prices must rule higher than last season. Unless we should have unusually heavy spring rains there is every probability that there will be a great scarcity of lumber before the close of the season, as the streams in the lumbering districts of this State and Michigan have been so low that comparatively few logs have yet been got down. The supply in the hands of dealers is light. Eight millions feet would fully cover the stock here, and the stock on hand at Chicago is also much less than last year.

HAY—Prairie $7@9 ⅌ ton; Timothy $1@12.

WOOD—Mixed $2,25@2,37; Hard $2,50@2,87 ⅌ cord.

MAPLE SUGAR—Selling in large quantities at 5c.

MILL STUFFS—Dull. We quote shorts $11@12 ⅌ ton.

FURS—Messrs. A. H. Gardiner & Co, quote:

Mink	$1,50@2,00	Cross Fox	4,00@5,00
Martin	2,00@4,50	Silver-grey Fox	20@30,00
Fisher	4,50@5,50	Wolf	50@1,00
Otter	3,50@4,50	Wild Cat	50
Bear	5,00@8,00	Lynx	$1,00@1,50
Cub Bear	2,50@4,00	Deer skins, per lb	25@40
Muskrat	15@20	Beaver, per lb	1,00@1,50
Coon	60@80	Red Fox	1,25@1,50

UNION CHEMICAL PAINT, MANUFACTURED and sold by the Chicago Paint Company,
97 WASHINGTON ST., CHICAGO.
It is the cheapest paint in the world.
It dries so quick that the desired number of coats may be given in a few hours.
It is perfectly healthy and free from all disagreeable odor.
It is very durable, and may be polished as smooth as the finest marble.
It will not peel off, and cannot be blistered by heat.
It is beautifully white, and will not turn yellow from being in darkness.
ONE POUND will go as far as TWO pounds of lead paint, and costs but ONE HALF the money.
For ceiling white and fresco painting, no other can at all compare with it.
It is ready for use as it comes from the keg, and needs no mixing or grinding.
